SECTION I — COVERAGES

1. Bodily Injury and Property Damage Liability

We will pay those sums that the insured becomes legally obligated to pay as damages because of bodily injury or property damage to which this insurance applies. We will have the right and duty to defend the insured against any suit seeking such damages. However, we will have no duty to defend the insured against any suit seeking damages for bodily injury or property damage to which this insurance does not apply. We may, at our discretion, investigate any occurrence and settle any claim or suit that may result. But the amount we will pay for damages is limited as described in the Limits of Insurance section. This insurance applies to bodily injury and property damage only if: (a) the bodily injury or property damage is caused by an occurrence that takes place in the coverage territory; and (b) the bodily injury or property damage occurs during the policy period.

2. Personal and Advertising Injury Liability

We will pay those sums that the insured becomes legally obligated to pay as damages because of personal and advertising injury to which this insurance applies. Personal and advertising injury means injury arising out of: false arrest or detention; malicious prosecution; wrongful eviction; oral or written publication of material that slanders or libels a person or organisation; oral or written publication of material that violates a person's right of privacy; the use of another's advertising idea in your advertisement; or infringement of copyright, trade dress or slogan in your advertisement.

SECTION II — WHO IS AN INSURED

If the Named Insured is designated as a corporation, the following are insureds: (a) the corporation itself; (b) executive officers and directors with respect to their duties as officers or directors; (c) stockholders with respect to their liability as stockholders; (d) employees — other than executive officers — with respect to acts within the scope of their employment, or while performing duties related to the conduct of the insured's business. However, an employee is not an insured for bodily injury or personal injury to a co-employee, or property damage to property owned, rented or occupied by, or loaned to, that co-employee.

SECTION III — EXCLUSIONS

The following are NOT covered:

SECTION IV — CONDITIONS

Duties in Event of Occurrence, Claim or Suit

You must see to it that we are notified as soon as practicable of an occurrence which may result in a claim. To the extent possible, notice should include how, when and where the occurrence took place, names and addresses of any injured persons and witnesses, and the nature and location of any injury or damage arising out of the occurrence. If a claim is received, you must immediately record the specifics of the claim and notify us. You must see to it that we receive written notice as soon as practicable.

Legal Action Against Us

No person or organisation has a right to bring us into an action to determine the insured's liability. No person or organisation has a right under this policy to sue us unless all of its terms have been fully complied with. A person or organisation may sue us to recover on an agreed settlement or on a final judgement against an insured obtained after an actual trial.

Other Insurance

If other valid and collectible insurance is available to the insured for a loss we cover under this policy, this policy is excess over any other insurance unless the other insurance is also written as excess. When this policy is excess, we will pay only our share of the amount of the loss, if any, that exceeds the sum of: (a) the total amount the other insurance would pay for the loss in the absence of this insurance; and (b) the total of all deductible and self-insured amounts under all that other insurance.

Premium Audit

We will compute all premiums for this policy in accordance with our rules and rates. Premium shown in the Declarations is a deposit premium only. At the close of each audit period we will compute the earned premium for that period. Audit premiums are due and payable on notice to the first Named Insured. If the sum of the advance and audit premiums paid for the policy period is greater than the earned premium, we will return the excess to the first Named Insured.
